

ABSTRACT

5 A non-asbestos friction material is made of a molded and cured composition containing a fibrous base other than asbestos, a binder, a filler and an abrasive. The abrasive includes zirconium silicate beads. Friction materials thus constituted have suitable coefficients of friction, exhibit a good noise performance, and minimize mating surface attack.